

All teachers travel unique roads to engage students in meaningful learning. Create your own learning intersection and in groups of four share strategies you use to engage students in your classroom. Use the space below to record insights from the conversation at your learning intersection.

